

St. Cecilia Music Center ~ A Venue for All Occasions

St. Cecilia Music Center's historic building has been a community treasure since its dedication in 1894. Over the years, not only has this downtown landmark served as a home for St. Cecilia's School of Music and performance programs, but its intimate, acoustically unrivaled Royce Auditorium has been an ideal venue for many area arts organizations. Each of its lovely rooms has also provided a beautiful background for countless memorable and joyous occasions.

With its elegant appointments and experienced staff, the St. Cecilia Music Center building is the perfect place for musical recitals, rehearsals, recording sessions and theatrical performances. It is also the ideal spot for business meetings, conferences, seminars and banquets as well as for luncheons, parties, wedding receptions, baby showers, wedding showers, family reunions and so much more.

ROYCE AUDITORIUM

Considered one of the most acoustically superb recital halls in the country, this exquisite 650-seat auditorium provides stepped seating and full stage lighting and rigging. It offers barrier-free access for both audience and artists and is equipped with a green room and dressing rooms.

DEXTER BALLROOM

This gracious and spacious second-floor ballroom includes a platform stage, two pianos and kitchen facilities. It seats 180 for a sit-down dinner or 165 for buffet-style service, 175 for a meeting or program and 200-250 for a standing reception.

PRESIDENTS ROOM

Beautifully appointed with a platform stage, two pianos, ornate pillared walls, classic-tiled fireplace and kitchenette. This charming hall seats 100 for a meeting or program or 48 seated at tables.

MIKA MUSIC LIBRARY

Oak-paneled walls, parquet flooring, cozy fireplace, one piano, and kitchen facilities all contribute to the warm and welcoming ambiance of this lower-level room, which holds 75 for a meeting or program or 48 seated at tables.
